

HAROLD DAVID is a multidisciplinary artist who draws his inspiration from life, his personal feelings and the universal field.

After establishing himself as one of Australia's premier portrait photographers, Harold turned his focus to painting, where he has positioned himself as an Abstract Surrealist. David's art practice includes an extensive number of solo shows: Uniform World and Tracksuits of St Marys, Penrith Regional Gallery; Fujieda City Museum and Hakusan Citizen's Arts Centre, Japan; Surface, Sydney Fringe Festival; Texas Trailer Park and Rapture, Rubyayre Gallery; Runway, Australian Centre for Photography, Others, Art Gallery of NSW, Garage Barbershop, Blacktown Arts Centre and Survey, Day Fine Art. His portrait of Bob Hawke drinking a milkshake won the 2018 National Portrait Prize – People's Choice Award.
